Kid's Korner Tickets are free for these programs and the Friends of the SB-M Library contribute funds to provide occasional snacks and crafts.

Gulf Coast Reads!

The goal of the Gulf Coast Reads program is to encourage readers throughout the Gulf Coast region to discuss a particular book with their neighbors, co-workers, friends and families during October. This year's selection is The Promise by Ann Weisgarber.

Set in Galveston in 1900, Ms. Weisgarber is a gifted storyteller who makes the time and the place come alive as she spins a tale of the tragic hurricane and an equally devastating storm of love, loss, and hidden secrets that changes lives.

So talk to your neighbors! Talk to your friends! ead together!

THEN, join us at OUR Library on Monday, October 5, 7-8PM, when Shelly Kelly will lead a discussion of that tragic time. Ms. Kelly is a former archivist with Rosenberg Library and is the co-author of Through a Night of Horrors—a collection of letters written by survivors immediately following the hurricane.

...and watch the Library's website for date and time for a second program relating to The Promise!

Lobby Book Exchange

In addition to checking out a favorite best seller, STOP on your way in or out of the lobby to also check out the selection of donated books you can find on the carts and wall shelves. A dedicated team of volunteers sorts and writes a suggested donation value inside each volume. Of course, this dollar amount is only a suggestion, and you are welcome to select a different amount for the books you want to take home.

Please leave your donation, check or cash, at the check-out desk inside the library. The Friends of the Library uses all these funds collected to support programs and improvements that benefit OUR library, so your generosity is greatly appreciated.

When you are finished with your selection, consider donating that book back so another patron can take it home and enjoy it!

Summer program updates—

The Library's children's programs opened with a visit from Marsha's Petting Zoo and was hugely popular with 200+ patrons coming to see the animals! All the programs had full-house attendance. These summer activities are largely supported by the Friends, and the Library and the community are very appreciative!

The Summer Reading Program was a great success with 450 Spring Branch-Memorial Library readers, including babies, children, teens and adults. Their SUPERPOWER is READING!
